

Specify which libraries to search

Start by searching your library:

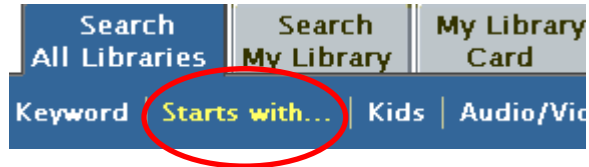

Click the “Search My Library” tab at the top of the screen, then click your library’s name from the list.

Remember that you can always include “All Libraries” in your search if you can’t find your title at your library.

Click this tab

Starts with ...

Click “Starts with ...”

TITLE starts with:

AUTHOR (last name, first):

SUBJECT starts with:

SERIES starts with:

ISBN/ISSN number:

Enter a term in only ONE box.

“Starts with ...” is like searching through the old card catalog. It will always return a list of authors, titles, or subjects alphabetically close to your search term, even if we don’t own the title.

Search Tips
